The Death of Mrs. Westaway by Ruth Ware
On a day that begins like any other, Hal moves to a small town and enrolls in the local school, he’s confident that his big city sophistication will establish him as a natural leader. He is shocked to find his new classmates and teacher under the spell of the class monitor. As the narrator sets out to overthrow the bully, he is threatened, teased—and finally broken. ~Goodreads.com

Colleen Oakley Book Launch in PTC
Tuesday, January 7, 2020, 11:00am
Council Chambers, City Hall
Colleen Oakley will launch her third novel, You Were There Too (Berkley Trade Paperback; January 7, 2020) in the Atlanta area with an appearance in Peachtree City. The event will be held next door to the Peachtree City Library in Council Chambers at City Hall. Oakley is the author of two previous novels,

The Tax Benefits of a Home-Based Business
Saturday, January 11, 2020, 10:00am — Room 2
In this workshop, hosted by Tasha Tolbert of Love Guac, learn how to maximize deductions and tax credits, and reduce your tax liability with the right home-based business. Tax law encourages business activity by offering many tax benefits to entrepreneurs. Running a home-based business has advantages that can qualify you for several of these deductions and credits. Reduce your W-2 income with the write-offs you will be able to use as a business owner!

Discover Your SAT or ACT Testing Timeline

Tuesday, January 7, 2020, 6:00pm — Room 2

For parents of high school students, this workshop will explore the test taking timeline, strategies for planning ahead, and learning to reduce unwanted stress while increasing student success. Registration required. Register at https://peachtreecitylibrary.eventbrite.com.

---

Book Talk & Signing

Sunday, January 12, 2020, 1:30pm-4:30pm — Readers & Writers Room

Please join local authors Paul Lentz, Delayne Ryms and Sharon Marchisello for their book release event. BOOK SALES WILL BENEFIT FRIENDS OF THE PEACHTREE CITY LIBRARY AND THE FAYETTE HUMANE SOCIETY

Enemy Planet – Son of Wolf, by Paul Lentz, the third in “The Stuff of Life” tetralogy, is a work of science fiction with starships and sailing ships, swords and laser pistols, vendetta, conspiracy, assassination, spies with telepathy and now, an enemy somewhere among the stars. Before Dragonflies, by J. Delayne Ryms, is a book of poetry which hurries the reader through time, space, and perception on a multitude of styles and thrusts the reader into thought, but never lulls us into complacency. Secrets of the Galapagos, by Sharon Marchisello, is a work of mystery, action and adventure. Mystery surrounds the disappearance of Giovanna’s new friend while on a trip to the Galapagos Islands and the cruise ship will not acknowledge that the friend is no longer on board.

ARC Mobile Career Resource Center

Monday, January 13, 2020, 10:00am-3:00pm

The Mobile Career Resource Center is a 13-station state of the art fully accessible computer lab. The unit offers a full array of services and has a private interview area as well as the option of dividing the classroom area into two separate rooms. The Mobile Career Resource Center provides workforce solutions for businesses and individuals. Businesses may use the mobile unit for recruiting, pre-employment screening, interviewing and training. Individuals will be served through various job search/career development activities such as on-line job search, resume and cover letter development, on-line tutorials and individual assessments and exploration of training eligibility and options. The Mobile Career Resource Center is FREE and open to the public. Registration required. Register at https://peachtreecitylibrary.eventbrite.com.

Crafting at the Library

Tuesday, January 14, 2020, 10:00am — Room 2

A crafting clinic where participants learn to make simple decorative crafts at the library. This event is free and open to the public. It will be held on the lower level of the library. All materials provided. This program is for adults ages 18 and up. Registration required. Register at https://peachtreecitylibrary.eventbrite.com.

Adult Sensory Storytime

Wednesday, January 15, 2020, 10:30am — Readers & Writers Room

This program is geared toward special needs adults. The program will include a story time with a common theme, followed by a simple craft or activity that provides a sensory experience for special needs adults. For example: playing instruments, listening to music, coloring and pasting, or creating something to take home. This program is free and open to the public, no registration required.

Peachtree City Library Art Initiative’s “Stitched Up! A fiber arts show.” Artist Reception

Sun., January 26, 2020, 3:00pm — Readers & Writers Room

Seven fiber artists – six quilters, and one weaver – show 29 pieces in the Art Initiative’s first curated fiber arts show. Weaver Denise Prince joins art quilters Teri Biglands, Myla Chapman, Tonia Mitchell, Candace Hackett Shively, Kathy Schultz, and Claudia Wood for a colorful and varied show. Come see – these aren’t your granny’s quilts! Attend our January 26th Art Sunday at 3:00 p.m. to meet these artists as well as our artists showing for Fayette Society of Fine Art, Peachtree City Photography Club, and Newnan-Coweta Art Association. Free and open to the public.

Vision Board Party

Tuesday, January 28, 2020, 4:00pm — Floy Farr Room

Create a vision board to make your dreams, goals, and vision a reality. It will remind and inspire you to keep progressing toward your vision of success. We’ll talk about the importance of articulating our goals and the benefit of setting it down on a visual medium. Boards, magazines, scissors, and glue provided. Registration required. Register at https://peachtreecitylibrary.eventbrite.com.

Retirement Planning Workshop (Two Time Slots Available)

Thursday, January 30, 2020, 11:00am & 6:00pm — Floy Farr Room

Nine Reasons People Fail Financially in Retirement –

Most people spend time dreaming about having the financial freedom to do what they want in retirement – travel, develop new skills, pursue hobbies or spend more time with loved ones. Unfortunately, most of us to not spend enough time preparing for the oftentimes difficult financial realities of retirement. This one-hour presentation will go over the main obstacles to achieving a successful retirement, how to identify them and how to avoid them. Learn how to make better and more confident choices when it comes to your financial future. Your instructor is Ray Dunlap, a Certified Financial Planner™ practitioner, and an Accredited Investment Fiduciary® with over 35 years of experience working in the financial services arena. Registration required. Register at https://peachtreecitylibrary.eventbrite.com.